EVANSTON
GREEN LIVING
FESTIVAL

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 6
9:00 AM - 3:00 PM

EVANSTON ECOLOGY CENTER, 2024 MCCORMICK BLVD.

From natural pet products to electric cars, this FREE family festival explores new products and technologies that will help protect the environment and improve everyone's quality of life.

Learn how being kinder to Mother Earth may actually save you time and money!

- ❖ Discover tips and ideas you can use NOW to conserve our precious resources.
- ❖ Take part in hands-on activities, view interesting demonstrations and learn from presentations given by environmental experts and advocates.
- ❖ Activities will take place indoors and outside all day, so bring the kids!
- ❖ Find out how shopping green can help you lessen your impact on the planet! Visit exhibits from more than 20 local green businesses and organizations.
- ❖ Receive a green award if you walk or ride your bicycle to the festival. A corral will be set up to safely take care of your bicycle.

The Evanston Green Living Festival is co-sponsored by the Evanston Environmental Association, the City of Evanston, ComEd and Northwestern University. For more information, call 847-448-8256.
